

Year 6 Spelling

LC Can I spell words that begin with qu?

- 1) queen
- 2) quiet
- 3) quilt
- 4) quest
- 5) question
- 6) quick
- 7) quack
- 8) quiver
- 9) quiz

Year 6 Spelling

LC Can I add the correct suffix? -cian, -sion, -tion, -ssion

-cian	-sion	-tion	-ssion
magician	comprehension	mathematician	permission
musician	extension	invention	admission
		completion	expression
		injection	discussion
		action

All these words have a 'shun' sound at the end. Can you choose the correct suffix and put these words in the correct columns? Can you think of any of your own 'shun' words?

magicianextensionmathematitionpermissioncomprehensioninjectioninventionadmissioncompletionactionmusicianexpressiondiscussion

Year 6 Spelling

LC Can I use 'sion' and 'ssion' correctly?

Some hints to help you:

- 'sion' is often used when words are formed from verbs which end with -d, -de, -se, -t. For example, to collide - collision, to comprehend - comprehension, persuade - persuasion, televise - television
- When words end in 'ss' just add 'ion'. For example, discuss - discussion, confess - confession, obsess - obsession
- If a word ends in 'mit' add the suffix 'ssion'. For example, admit - admission, permit - permission, commit - commission
- If a word ends in 'cede' / 'ceed' add the suffix 'ssion'. For example, succeed - succession, proceed - procession, concede - concession

Complete the sentences below using either a 'sion' or 'ssion' words. You can use the word beginnings below to help you.

- 1) The man lived in a huge mausion.
- 2) My vision improves when I wear glasses.
- 3) I like to watch television in the evening.
- 4) Ben had to do some revison for his science test.
- 5) We had a discussio about our favourite foods.
- 6) The astronauts were on a mission to the moon.
- 7) We went on a bus excursion.
- 8) The explosion could be heard miles away.
- 9) He painted the wall with emulsion.
- 10) I like to play percussion instruments.

vi	televi	revi	discu	explo
emul	mi	man	percu	excur

Year 6 Spelling

LC Can I use 'ture' and 'sure' correctly?

Some hints to help you:

- The ending sounding like zur are always spelt 'sure'.
- The ending sounding like chur are often spelt 'ture'.
- However, you need to check that the word is not a root word ending in 'ch' with an ending, as these words do not follow the rule e.g teacher or catcher, richer or stretcher

Section A

Circle the correct spelling of the word and cross-out the incorrect spelling to complete the sentence.

- 1) Anne thinks the enclosure/~~enclosure~~ is too small for the animals.
- 2) Kevin's company has started to ~~manufacsure~~/manufacture fridges.
- 3) Despite the argument, I managed to keep my composure/~~compoture~~.
- 4) The witch cooked up a mixture/~~mixture~~ of slugs and snails.
- 5) The architect said the structure/~~strucsure~~ was secure.
- 6) Jack Sparrow is searching for his lost, buried treasure/~~treasure~~.

Section B

Add either -sure or -ture to spell the words below correctly.

- 1) lei sure
- 2) tor ture
- 3) crea ture

Section C

Decide whether the sound is made by 'cher' or 'ture'

- 1) The unusual creature had six green ears
- 2) Grandma polishes her furniture every day.
- 3) The teacher stayed behind to mark books.
- 4) I painted a picture of my family.
- 5) "Let's go on an adventure!" shouted Lee.
- 6) The temperature in this room is 24°C.

Year 6 Spelling

Can I identify and spell words correctly when a suffix or prefix is added?

Section A

Add a prefix to these root words to fill the gaps:

I am always worried my writing will disappear (appear) from the computer screen. If that keeps happening I will have to replace (place) the computer but I will be very unhappy (happy) if I have to do that. As a precaution (caution) I will save all my work on a memory stick.

What happens to the root word when you add the prefix?

Nothing! It is spelt exactly the same.

Section B

Add a suffix to these root words to fill the gaps:

I am (learn) learning to write formal (letter) letters. It is (prefer) preferable to begin the letter with a (greet) greeting. If the letter is to someone I don't know, I end it 'Yours (faith) faithfully'. If the letter is to someone I know, I end it 'Yours (sincere) sincerely'.

What happens to the root word when you add the suffix?

In these cases (above) nothing. The spelling remains the same.

Section C

There are some words where you could add a prefix and a suffix. Can you work out what they could be?

un (trust) worthy

un faith ful

un (do) able

un (comfort) able

re (turn) able

di (stress) ing

Challenge: can you find more than one option for this word:

re (cover) ed or dis (cover) s or un (cover) ings

There are several!