

Look back over the notes you have made about the first two chapters of our book.

Think carefully about what has happened so far in the story and check that you understand where we are, who the key characters are and what has happened.

If you are unsure re-read the text.

Today we will be summarising our notes to give an overall guide to the story so far.

The important thing to remember is we now know more about the children, their names etc than we did when we wrote the first chapter's notes.

So for example;

- The airplane was rising
- Fred (a boy) was sitting in the cockpit
- He seems nervous
- The plane is heading to Manaus
- Two children were sat behind him, they look like siblings.....

We can now work out who these children are.

A plane is flying through the air above the Amazon Rainforest climbing high through the clouds towards Manaus. In the front seat a boy called Fred seemed nervous. There two children sat behind him, their names were

Fred woke surrounded by the burning wreckage of the airplane but unaware of where he was. Rain began to fall as slowly Fred discovered the other children. Max would not stop crying, scared and cold he even spotted a dangerous snake nearby! The children decided to Please finish your summaries of each of the chapters you have notes for. Make sure you include all of the key details and that you fully understand what has happened so far in the story.
