Multiplication and division challenge

You have 30 counters.

How many different arrays can you create?

Remember, each array needs an equal amount in each column or row.

Draw the different arrays below - remember to include the fact family calculations too!