

Monday 22nd June

Activity 2:

Add the correct punctuation for direct speech, using inverted commas and either a comma, exclamation mark or question mark.

1. What did you think of the football match questioned Mike.

2. I love ice cream commented Janaid.

3. Oh no I didn't mean to upset you exclaimed Yasmin.

4. Mike is terrible declared the referee.

5. How am I going to learn all these spellings worried James quietly.

6. Are you going to the cinema this weekend asked Jane.

7. It's good to make mistakes explained Caroline.

8. I hope you like your present muttered Nick shyly.

CHALLENGE: Can you write your own sentence from scratch?

Answers for grown-ups only to look at!

1. "What did you think of the football match?" questioned Mike.
2. "I love ice cream!" commented Janaid.
3. "Oh no I didn't mean to upset you!" exclaimed Yasmin.
4. "Mike is terrible," declared the referee.
5. "How am I going to learn all these spellings?" worried James quietly.
6. "Are you going to the cinema this weekend?" asked Jane.
7. "It's good to make mistakes," explained Caroline.
8. "I hope you like your present!" muttered Nick shyly.