

Wednesday 24th June

Can you add in the possessive apostrophes into the correct places within the sentences?

1. Romes founder was Romulus who built the city in 753BC.
2. The Roman Empires city was called Rome and was located in the centre of Italy.
3. The Colosseum is an amphitheatre that was built around 70 BC. It is one of Romes famous buildings.
4. The Colosseums four floors could hold at least 50,000 spectators.
5. During the Roman period, Romes language was a form of Latin.
6. We still use Roman numerals today instead of numbers on many clock faces, including Londons Big Ben!
7. The Romans built aqueducts (water bridges) which supplied many of the citys residents with access to water.
8. At the start of the Roman Empire, the gladiators were slaves or criminals who were forced to fight. A Gladiators helmets and body armour protected them.
9. A Romans dinner was often served as they were lying on their couches and they would use their hands.
10. The Battle against Boudiccas Iceni tribe was one of Emperor Neros biggest challenges.

Answers – FOR GROWN UP EYES ONLY!

1. Rome's founder was Romulus who built the city in 753BC.
2. The Roman Empire's city was called Rome and was located in the centre of Italy.
3. The Colosseum is an amphitheatre that was built around 70 BC. It is one of Rome's famous buildings.
4. The Colosseum's four floors could hold at least 50,000 spectators.
5. During the Roman period, Rome's language was a form of Latin.
6. We still use Roman numerals today instead of numbers on many clock faces, including London's Big Ben!
7. The Romans built aqueducts (water bridges) which supplied many of the city's residents with access to water.
8. At the start of the Roman Empire, the gladiators were slaves or criminals who were forced to fight. A Gladiator's helmets and body armour protected them.
9. A Roman's dinner was often served as they were lying on their couches and they would use their hands.
10. The Battle against Boudicca's Iceni tribe was one of Emperor Nero's biggest challenges.