We'll Meet Again Vocabulary Guide

	Word	Definition
	Adolf Hitler (person)	German leader of the Nazi party during the Second World War air raid (noun)	a bombing attack where explosives are dropped from aircraft onto the ground air raid siren (noun)	a loud alarm, warning resident to take cover in shelters when air raids occur air raid shelter (noun)	a place designed or repurposed so that residents can hide inside while air raids occur Allies (noun)	the group of countries who fought against Germany, Italy and Japan in the Second World War allotment (noun)	a small piece of land used for growing flowers, fruit and vegetables Battle of Britain (noun)	the prolonged bombardment of British cities by the German Luftwaffe and the aerial combat that accompanied it black market (noun)	illegal trade of anything which is rare or precious e.g. extra rations blackout (noun)	a time when all lights must be turned off or covered to make it harder for the enemy to see their target during an air raid billets (noun)	places, often in people's homes where soldiers stay for a while Blitz (noun)	a severe or sudden attack; the German air raids on Britain in 1940 - 1 conscription (noun)	a requirement by law for every eligible citizen to join the armed forces coupons (noun)	a small ticket with which one paid for rations of food during war time doodlebugs (noun)	a nickname for the V-1 flying bomb used by Germany in the Second World War evacuee (noun)	a young person sent to live with a host family during wartime evacuation (noun)	the process of sending young people to live with host families during war time gas mask (noun)	a protective mask worn over a person's face to help the breathe without inhaling poisonous host family (noun)	a family living in a rural or remote area with a space for an evacuee to stay during war time

	Jerry (noun)	a common nickname for Germans during the Second World War locomotive (noun)	a vehicle used for pulling trains along railway tracks Luftwaffe (noun)	the German air force during the Second World War
	Morse code (noun)	an alphabet in which letters are represented by combinations of long and short signals navy (noun)	the branch of the armed forces which operates at sea rationing (noun)	allowing each person to have a limited amount of certain foods or commodities that are in short supply ration book (noun)	a document that lists the rations that each person should receive Royal Air Force (noun)	the United Kingdom's air force shillings (noun)	a British coin equal to twelve pence, or one twentieth of an old pound spitfire (noun)	a British fighter plane used throughout the Second World War telegram (noun)	a message sent by telegraph and the delivered in written form by a messenger warden (noun)	a member of the community responsible for enforcing wartime rules

	Winston Churchill (person)	prime minister of the United Kingdom from 1940 -1945