Writing/English

Story writing

Today we are going to begin our Frog Prince story writing. We suggest splitting your story writing across three days. We have highlighted which day you are working on. See information to include and examples below.

Decide on a title for your story. Instead of 'The Frog Prince', Miss Finley and Miss Snell's story is going to be titled 'The Owl Prince', because the fairy turns the prince into an owl. Remember to write in the past tense, as though the story has already happened!

Tuesday - Beginning. Use the original Frog Prince story to help you.

Can you introduce and describe some of the important characters and the setting?

What did the fairy do?

E.g. Once upon a time there lived an evil, cruel fairy who turned a handsome prince into a wise, old owl. The fairy placed the owl into a tall oak tree in the castle grounds. In the distance, there was a glistening lake, where swans swam elegantly. One day a beautiful young princess was playing with her shiny golden ball when she accidentally threw her ball into the tall oak tree. The princess begged the owl to return her ball. She said if you return my ball, I will love you, let you eat from my plate and sleep on my bed.

Wednesday - Middle.

What did the princess do when her ball was returned to her?

E.g. The owl kindly returned the ball to the beautiful princess. Suddenly, the princess ran through the flower gardens, back to her palace without the owl. The princess told her kind and gentle father about what had happened, and he warned her to keep her promise.

Thursday - End.

How was the problem solved? What did the princess do?

E.g. So the princess let the owl eat from her plate and sleep on her soft comfortable bed. After a while, the beautiful princess woke to find a handsome prince! The prince and the princess were married and lived happily ever after. The end.

Other

Can you prepare and host a teddy bear's picnic? Find a comfy blanket and your favourite toys to sit with you! Maybe you could make a yummy snack and have a drink at your picnic? Can you play any games or read a story? If the weather is nice, you could have your picnic outside! You could even make invitations to invite your toys and members of your family to attend your picnic. Have fun!!

If you have any questions, please email year1@kingslea.org.uk and teachers will be checking this address to respond in the morning.
