

Inside the Castle

You can take a tour of the magnificent rooms inside the castle.

There are cosy tea rooms where you can have tea, coffee or cakes.

On school visits you can dress up as knights, kings, queens and even a jester!

There are real knights' armour and weapons to see.

You can visit the great hall and see portraits of real people who lived in the castle.

Outside the Castle

You can enjoy a walk around the beautiful castle gardens.

In the Spring, there are colourful flowers everywhere and a greenhouse that you can walk through.

If you look closely, you can find unusual trees and hidden waterfalls.

When the weather is nice, visitors can have a picnic in the garden.

Some people like to walk up the stairs to the keep and look at the amazing views.

Location

You can find Arundel Castle in the centre of Arundel town.

The train station is a short walk from the castle and it takes 90 minutes to get there from London.

There are many buses that can take you to the castle from Brighton and Chichester.

You can see Arundel Castle as you come in to Arundel because it stands on a large hill.
