English - Writing

- Your writing project this week is to create a fact file about Australia!
- We will give you an area to focus on each day.
- You can present your project however you wish.
- Try to use these grammar and key features in your fact file:

Catchy sub-headings	Captions for pictures	A map showing the major cities and territories	Expanded noun phrases White, sandy beaches	Conjunctions but, and, so, because	Commas in a list
---------------------	-----------------------	--	---	---------------------------------------	------------------

- Day One – Where is Australia?
- Day Two – What animals live in Australia?
- Day Three – Research an Australian city
- Day Four – What is the Great Barrier Reef?
- Day Five – Why should people visit Australia?

Maths - CGP Books

Arithmetic book – Page 11 – Addition of 3 one digit numbers

- Can you find the short cuts using ‘what you know’? For example, $6 + 2 + 6$
- ‘I already know that double 6 is 12 and 2 more is 14.’

Reasoning book – Page 5 – Counting in 2s, 3s, 5s and 10s

- Can you create your own missing number sequences to test your grown up or sibling?

Online Homework

- It is a Sumdog week! Can you use this week to earn some more coins? Will you move up to the next level on the animal rankings?
- Remember we have set a Place Value quiz for your online homework – have you managed to start or complete this yet? Use what you have learnt at school to help you!
- There are 60 questions to answer – you don’t need to answer them all at once, you can always take a break or answer 20 questions a day. This shouldn’t take you too long to complete.
- The challenge will run until Friday 5pm – good luck!

The Burnooper Challenge!

- Even though life is very different for us all at the moment we can all be very thankful for many things. Take the time today to reflect on your week and write a list of things you are thankful for. Try to list at least 5 things. This will remind you of all the lovely things that are happening even in these different times.
