Reading

Read 5 pages of your book. What do you think will happen next? Think about each of the characters and what decisions they might make. Can you draw a picture of what will happen in the next few pages? Label it clearly to explain your ideas and thoughts.

This should take you 20 minutes to complete.

Writing/English

Life Cycle of a Plant

Today we are going to write our final paragraph explaining seed dispersal. Follow these steps slowly and carefully (or precisely) to become a wonderful writer.

1. Read your research all about seed dispersal to remind yourself of your key facts.
2. Then look at your burger/paragraph poster, do you remember how a paragraph starts?
3. Begin your paragraph with a clear subheading. Keep that handwriting wonderful!
4. Write your descriptive and detailed paragraph full of lots of enlightening (juicy) facts. Remember to include an opening sentence and a closing sentence. It should be no more than 2/3 of a page.

All great writers keep proof reading and editing their work. To make your writing exceptional can you up-level 5 words that you have used? You can colour them in to make them stand out. Can you add in an expanded noun phrase?

Challenge: Can you find three examples of using a possessive apostrophe? Put a 1 in the margin next to any possessive apostrophes you have used to match your checklist.
